

The diagram shows a rectangular print layout with a light blue background. It features two vertical green lines representing fold lines, positioned approximately one-third and two-thirds of the way across the page. A horizontal blue line, representing the safety line, is located about one-third of the way down the page. Two red lines, representing the cut lines, are positioned slightly outside the green fold lines. Arrows point from the text labels to their respective lines: two arrows point to the red cut lines at the top, one arrow points to the blue safety line from the left, and one arrow points to the blue safety line from the right. A horizontal double-headed arrow is positioned below the blue safety line, spanning the width between the green fold lines.
